

Routine Greetings 日常の挨拶

A Quick-Reference Guide

There are 3 layers/levels to starting English conversations and events:

1: Hello Layer (Outer)

2: Firewall Layer: Fake/Not-real/Test Question or Status Update Question

3: Real Conversation/Event Layer (Inner)

A Routine Greetings with 3 Parts

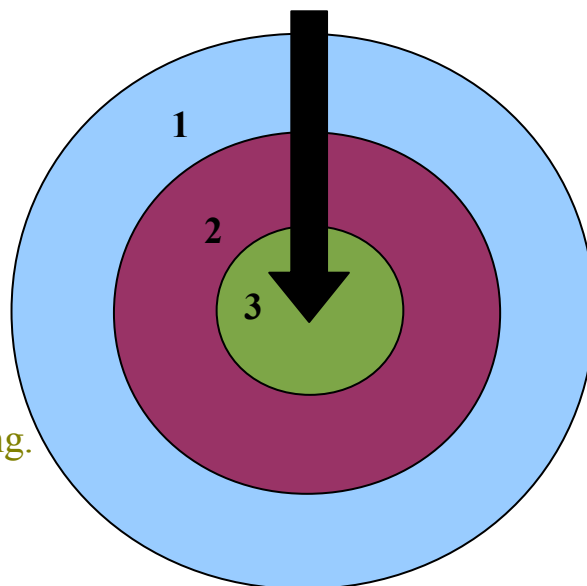

Overview:

1) Greeting Phrase (Handshake)

2.1) Test Question: Asking about the person about the status of something.

2.2) Positive Response.

3) The real event/ the real conversation/ parting.

Speaker Parts:

1. Greeting

A) Hello

B) Hello

2. Fake Question

A) Question

B) Happy answer

B) Question (How about you?)

A) Happy answer

3. Start/End

A) Goodbye (or Conversation)

B) Goodbye (or Conversation)

Example: Social-Equals, Casual	Example: Two different levels of status
Person 1: Hello. Person 2: Hay there.	Person 1: Hello there. Person 2: Good Morning, Sir.
Person 1: How was your trip? Person 2: It was great.	Person 1: How was your trip. Person 2: It was very nice. Thank you for asking.
Person 2: How is work going? Person 1: Just fine.	Person 2: How is your new project going? Person 1: Oh, just fine.
Person 1: See you around. Person 2: Later.	Person 1: See you around. Person 2: Have a great day, Sir.