

Tongue Twisters: Basic, For Beginners 早口言葉

A Quick-Reference Guide

Sets of three English vowel sounds, using words with similar spellings, and sets of three vowels plus "r," both before and after the "r."

The bot has a bat in his boat.
On the boat is a bot with a bat.

She was about to use a boot as bait.
He was about to put bait in his boot.

Eat a bit of beet and make your bet.
I bet that beet is a bit bigger.

Bit by bit, the bite got bad.
The bad bite hurt a bit.

But, at the butte, he bought pizza.
She bought but cake at the butte.

He put it that she pouted as he putted.
You put the pouting putter out.

Bail if you see a bull with Boole.
Gorge Boole was bullish on bailing.

This bowl will boil your bowels.
If your bowels boil, drink this bowl.

(Before "R")
The boar in the bower had a burr.
Bower's burr asked the boar for a lift.

The beur in the byre had no beer.
The beur was bereft of a byre's beer.

The bear bought bayer and a bar of soap.
Bayer comes in bars, for bears.

A steward has a barrow of berries.
This berry barrow is the stewards.

(After R)
Fill the bran-bag to the brim with bream.
The bream has bran to the brim.

Brian ate briny brains.
Brian's brains beg him for bran.

Breen like brown bran.
Bran grows on brown Breen.

A brawny broan has a broom.
Brooming begs brawn from a broan.