

Buying a sandwich before work, while driving to work: Past

Common/Casual:

I got a sandwich on my way (to work).

I picked up a sandwich on my way (to work).

I grabbed a sandwich on my way (to work).

[Fast/quick/rushed]

I bought a sandwich on my way (to work).

Technical/Formal:

I purchased a sandwich on my way (to work).

I obtained a sandwich on my way (to work).

I procured a sandwich on my way (to work).

I requisitioned a sandwich on my way (to work).

Vague

I came upon a sandwich on my way (to work).

Requesting that someone else buy breakfast: Future

Common/Casual:

Please get a sandwich on your way to work.

Please pick up a sandwich on your way to work.

Please grab a sandwich on your way to work.

[Very Informal]

Please buy a sandwich on your way to work.

Technical/Formal:

Please purchase a sandwich on your way to work.

Please obtained a sandwich on your way to work.

Please procure a sandwich on your way to work.

Please requisition a sandwich on your way to work.